ABOUT US
Who we are?

The Palestinian Center for Education and Cultural Exchange – Go Palestine was established to meet the cultural, social, and educational needs of the Palestinian Community. The Center offers educational and community services to its Palestinian population through a diverse international staff. Through tutoring and educational programs, the Center promotes unyielding support to Palestinian youth.

The Center acts as a meeting point for all the internationals who come from every corner of the world in order to immerse themselves in Palestinian culture, and to become acquainted with Palestinian daily life. Our international interns and volunteers teach Palestinian youth and more mature Palestinian community members about their own home cultures, thereby gaining valuable experience and knowledge for themselves. It is a true cultural exchange.

Our Hebron Center offers English, Turkish, and Hebrew language courses to Palestinians of all ages, beginning with children who are 7 years old. The Center provides social and educational activities that aim to entertain and educate; these activities will enhance the life and professional skills of the mature community members in Hebron.
Location
Where are we?

The Center is in the heart of Hebron on Ein Sarah Street (this section of the city is under the supervision of the Palestinian Authority).

The Center has been hosting to myriads of people interning and volunteering with us, and who have traveled from many countries in the world to come to Hebron to share their skills, experience, knowledge, and cultures with Palestinian children and Hebron community members. The Palestinian Center is fully equipped with high-speed wireless internet, three classrooms, computers, and a big kitchen.

Hebron City
An Overview

Who joined us & what did they say?

Mark Daly - UK
Volunteer with Palestinian Refugees Program

“I volunteered as a football coach at the Fawwar Refugee camp just outside of Hebron. I coached two groups of boys from the ages of six to sixteen years of age from the local school. I never had any worries about personal safety and found that these concerns have no place in Palestinian society”

Sasha Burkhardt – Switzerland
Lawyers in Palestine Program

“I had the chance to meet with dozens of lawyers, judges and prosecutors and ask them about their work in Palestine. The legal professionals I met with were all more than happy to teach me about the history of law in Palestine, but also its execution on a day to day basis. I think the best way of learning about a political or a legal situation is to go and experience it yourself, and I’m glad I did”

Hannah Brock – UK
Human Rights in Palestine Program

“The program is really flexible, and the organizers are excellent at shaping the course around your priorities. Not only did I get to meet local people and activists, I was shown around the Old City and Shuhada street to observe for myself the effects of Israeli occupation on the local population”
Natalia Macias – Mexico
Teach English in Palestine Program

“Choosing Go Palestine was probably one of the best decisions I could have made. During my stay here, I volunteered in the Teaching English as a Volunteer program. I was able to assist in the old center with three of the English teachers who are amazing at everything they do. For me it was a life change and eye-opening experience that I will talk about positively for the rest of my life.”

Marek Magierecki - Denmark
Volunteer with Palestinian Children Program

“As a circus artist I had the chance to come around Hebron and the small villages around it and make shows and workshop for many children. I always had somebody from Palestinian center with me and felt useful and safe. I would not have the chance to do it on my own.”

Nikka Marie - USA
Human Rights in Palestine Program

“Go Palestine has been excellent in supporting me and ensuring that I have relevant activities to my program. I have conducted interviews with various Palestinian nonprofit organizations and have gone on visits to areas that are especially demonstrative of the human rights violations in Palestine. I have highly valued most, if not all, events that my program coordinator has organized to facilitate my learning.”

Entry Visa
Do YOU need visa to Palestine?

The Palestinian Authority is not responsible as Palestine has no control over the borders. The Israeli government requires a visa for entry into Israel. Visas are routinely granted upon arrival at Ben Gurion Airport (Tel Aviv) if you are a citizen of an exempted country, or at the Allenby-King Hussein Bridge Israel-Jordan border crossing.

Tourist visas are valid for 90 days. Most Americans and Europeans are issued three-month visas upon arrival and clearing customs.

At this website you may check to see whether your native country participates in a visa exemption agreement:
